

Kadena AMC Terminal

When you arrive at the Kadena AMC terminal, you will go to the Customs & Immigration area to have your carry-on baggage and passports checked by a customs official. Please have a copy of your orders and your Dependent Entry Approval/Area Clearance (for active duty family members) ready for verification.

If you are unable to locate your sponsor, there is an Information Counter and phones for your use after collecting your baggage.

Unaccompanied USMC and Sailors assigned to USMC units, E-5 and below, please remain in the lobby area after leaving the plane. A Joint Reception Center (JRC) representative will be present to guide you through customs and down to baggage claim.

The following sections provide a guide to help you navigate through the Kadena AMC Terminal.
